

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Mr. Michael Powell, you say you waited all night to see or hear from the angel of "public interest," and she didn't show! Well, emails like this are many angels telling you there is a "public interest." I repeat there IS, there IS, a "public interest"---it is pretty much what is NOT in the interest of the big corporations--if that helps to find what it is.
